Re: Proposed Brine Injection Well – Brookfield Township
Trumbull County, Ohio

Dear Sirs:

The Board of Trumbull County Commissioners is writing this letter on behalf of the Brookfield Township Trustees. The Trustees submitted a letter to you, dated March 13, 2017, stating their concerns regarding the proposed brine injection well off State Route 7 (Parcel Nos. 03-602341 and 602342) Sections 33 and 40, in Brookfield Township, Trumbull County, Ohio.

The Brookfield Township Trustees are concerned about additional traffic on State Route 7 near the mobile home park (Wyngate Manor) and their major fire station as well as contamination in the nearby coal mines, thus contaminating the water tables.

The Commissioners agree with the Trustees regarding safety concerns for the residents and is respectfully requesting the Ohio Department of Natural Resources to consider addressing these serious concerns.

Sincerely,

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

Frank S. Fuda, President
